

Law and Motion Information and Instructions

This system was developed for reserving general civil law and motion hearings with the exception of small claims and unlawful detainers.

There are no additional fees charged to use this motion hearing reservation system.

You will be charged the applicable motion filing fee at the time you reserve the motion hearing date. Once the motion hearing date is reserved, the fees are non-refundable.

All motions and related documents shall be filed with the clerk's office according to statute. Once this paperwork is filed with the court your reservation shall be confirmed.

All Motions in Limine shall be filed with the assigned trial department.

If you are filing a motion for a new trial or have any questions, contact your local clerk's office.

At this time, the system is only accepting on line reservations for the following locations:
